THE WARSHIP OF THE FUTURE

FOOTBALL yobs were involved in ugly brawls outside the Priestfield Stadium after Saturday's ill-tempered match between Gillingham and Leeds United.

Followers of both sides exchanged blows near the ground shortly before 6pm, forcing police to intervene. Four arrests were made.

A 45-year-old man and a 16-year-old boy, both from Hampshire, were arrested in Livingstone Road. Each were fined £80 for disorder.

A 44-year-old Chatham man was cautioned for the same offence, while a 39-year-old man was released without charge.

Ch Insp Peter Wedlake said: "The vast majority of fans were well-behaved and enjoyed an entertaining game.

"It was disappointing that arrests were necessary. However, we cannot turn a blind eye to the minority who sought to spoil the event by acting antisocially.

"We are proud to have a high-profile football team in our town and will continue to support the club so the safety of fans is ensured in future matches."

The 1-1 draw with Leeds was marred by unpleasant scenes at the final whistle.

The referee was pelted with coins by the travelling Leeds support, who were incensed by his decision to send off two of their players and order manager Dennis Wise to the stands at half-time.

Security guards stepped in to hurriedly escort the referee and his assistants from the pitch, with the fourth official using his board to protect his head.

Several other United fans struck out at stewards, forcing police dog handlers to intervene in a bid to

Boy rebuked after punching woman

■ BY SIMON ROBINSON

A YOUNG boy has been reprimanded by police for his part in stoking tensions between his community and newly-arrived Slovakian immigrants.

The 10-year-old was handed the reprimand for punching a 36-year-old Slovakian woman on the arm in Luton, Chatham, last month. Police say he had admitted the offence.

But there was outrage after the woman's friend, a 35-year-old Slovakian woman, retaliated and struck the boy with a two-foot metal pipe, outside Luton Junior School.

She was arrested, questioned by police then released on bail while officers continue to investigate.

And police stepped up the number of patrols outside the school in a determined effort to curb rising tensions and prevent what some fear could become a full-scale race row.

Despite the increased police presence, incidents of racial abuse in the area remain frequent.

Last week two girls, aged 16 and 18, were arrested for allegedly shouting racial abuse and throwing stones at a Slovakian man near the school on Luton Road.

The incident took the number of racially motivated crimes in the area

TENSION Police patrols have been stepped up around Luton Road school to calm tension in the past six months to 13 – more than one a fortnight.

A number of Slovakian youngsters have taken up places at Luton Junior school, leading to daily stand-offs between parents in the morning and afternoon.

One mother of four, who declined to be named, said she felt threatened by the immigrant population.

She said: "It's very hostile. It's very intimidating when you walk to the school gates. I don't let my boy go out any more. My daughter says she feels nervous, but I tell her to hold her head up high. It's a nightmare."

A Slovakian mother, who did not want to be named, told a different story, saying she knew Slovakian parents who had been the target of racist abuse from local parents and children.

A police spokesman said: "We won't tolerate racially motivated offences whoever they are committed by."

"There has been a recent influx of Slovakian immigrants and with that comes cultural and language issues."

"It is a situation we are aware of and appropriate action – including a noticeable police presence in the area – has been taken."

"We also set up a meeting with those involved and local politicians which was well attended and we hope will go some way towards preventing further problems."

'Merger of Temple and Chapter will end family ethos'

Plan for new £2.5m academy

■ BY SIMON ROBINSON

COUNCIL chiefs have taken the first step towards merging a high-achieving girls' school in Strood with a nearby struggling boys' school to form a new vocational academy.

Medway council's cabinet agreed last Tuesday to consult with parents, teachers, governors and pupils over the proposals, which would see Chapter and Temple schools combined.

A consultation document outlining the multi-million pound plans is currently being compiled ahead of the first phase of consultation, which runs from next month to mid-December.

Portfolio-holder for children's services Cllr Les Wicks said: "We are looking to the future to ensure all our young people have access to first-class facilities. One of the council's main priorities is to give children the best start in life. We can't do that without good education facilities."

The academy would provide a wide range of academic and vocational courses, ranging from baby care to engineering, and would boast enhanced sporting and IT facilities.

Private sponsorship of £2 million would be sought for an endowment fund, with £500,000 of it being financed by Medway council.

Labour spokesman for children's services Cllr Bill Esterson backed the academy but criticised the council over its handling of the consultation period.

He said: "Any consultation is in danger of being a sham as the cabinet has already decided its preferred option and its preferred site – an academy at Chapter School with the Temple School site sold to developers."

"Parents should have been consulted before the cabinet chose its preferred options."

Chapter School head Sue Dore is opposed to the planned merger.

She said: "We have 1,100 pupils here and have been building successfully year on year. Why do we need to close?"

"The proposal would lose everything Chapter has stood for."

"We're concerned about losing the school ethos which we've built up over the years. We care for each other, support one another when things go wrong and celebrate together when things go well."

"An academy would give us great buildings, which would be lovely to have, but we'd lose that family ethos."

The council aims to open the academy at the Chapter School site in September 2009, with a new building completed 12 to 18 months later.

Temple School recorded the worst GCSE results in England according to the league tables published in January.

KELLY IS HIT WITH BOOKIES AND BBC

BBC bosses are quietly betting that bookies' favourite Kelly Brook will boost their ratings even further when the new series of Strictly Come Dancing begins this Saturday.

Rochester-born Kelly, 26 – paired with Brendan Cole – is the biggest name in this year's show, which also features former footie ace John Barnes and ex snooker star Willie Thorne.

A BBC source told Yourmedway: "Kelly's is a pretty good dancer. And she's got an amazing figure that her dress designer has been keen to show it off."

One supporter said that he saw a Gills fan tangle with a 50-strong group of Leeds fans near the Co-op and another said that he witnessed an attack on a Leeds fan sitting in the home section of the Brian Moore Stand.

Don't let nuisance trick-or-treaters buy eggs or flour

■ BY SIMON ROBINSON

SHOP owners across Medway are being asked to be extra vigilant in the run-up to Halloween when selling eggs and flour to teenagers.

The evening antics of trick or treaters are, for the most part, harmless fun but can cause some residents, particularly the elderly, a great deal of distress.

Medway Trading Standards and Kent Police are once again teaming up to combat the problem of troublemakers attacking people or property with messy foods.

Retailers are being issued with posters and advice during the run-up to Wednesday, October 31, and are being asked to use their discretion when selling products to under-16s.

Medway council portfolio-holder for community safety and enforcement Cllr Rehman Chishti said: "Halloween should be a time for children to have fun, but a minority of people use the holiday as an excuse to terrorise people. We are not trying to discourage people from having fun."

Police community support officer Claire Dale said: "One person's idea of a trick is another's idea of vandalism, and those found to be in possession of eggs and flour for use against people or property can expect the police to take appropriate action."

Residents can also learn more about keeping safe this Halloween and Bonfire Night by watching the latest Community Safety Partnership (CSP) TV broadcasts.

For Trading Standards and community safety information visit www.medway.gov.uk/communitysafety or call 01634 33333.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Lines of communication down before accident

A BREAKDOWN in communication led to a train striking an overhead inspection gantry and causing injury to a passenger.

The 21.57 service from Paddock Wood to Gillingham hit the bridge structure on February 5 this year ripping the roof off the driver's cab and severely damaging the leading carriage.

The only passenger on the late-night train was hurt in the crash which took place near Aylesford and the driver also suffered minor injuries.

Rail safety investigators discovered that there had been a lack of communication between inspection company InterRoute and rail operators Southeastern.

A spokesman for the Rail Accident Investigation Branch said: "The inspectors working on the bridge did not have permission from the rail company as there had been a failure to communicate through the right channels."

"So the line was not closed as it should have been."

Prince Philip to take part in remembering sailors

THE DUKE of Edinburgh will visit Medway later this year to unveil a memorial to the 11,000 sailors who lost their lives on Royal Navy Destroyers during the Second World War.

His Royal Highness will attend the dedication ceremony of the National Destroyer monument at Chatham Historic Dockyard in November.

The memorial was commissioned to remember the crewmen who lost their lives on the 142 destroyers sunk in the war.

Fittingly, it will be placed alongside HMS Cavalier, the last operational Second World War destroyer, persevered at the dockyard.

More than 500 ex-Destroyer servicemen, their friends and families have already booked their places to attend the ceremony which will also be attended by civic dignitaries and naval officers.

Partnership structured around building services

MEDWAY council has joined forces with its Swale and Gravesham counterparts to jointly provide building services.

The South Thames Gateway partnership – the first partnership of its kind in Kent – came into effect on Monday.

The partnership will ensure existing and new structures across the combined area conform to building regulations.

A leading bug expert has been shortlisted for a top research prize for his work in controlling a deadly African fly.

Dr Steve Torr, of the University of Greenwich at Medway, has been investigating ways in which farmers can use pesticide against tsetse flies, which spread the fatal sleeping sickness.

His work has earned him a nomination in the Times Higher Educational Supplement Research Project of the Year.

Steve, a world expert in the control of the flies, said: "Tsetse fly is a dreadful problem in Africa, killing 30,000 people and two million cattle every year."

"Although insecticide is effective, it has not been widely used as it is too expensive for farmers and may reduce the immunity of cattle to diseases that are spread by ticks."

Using a form of DNA fingerprinting, Steve and his colleagues at the University of Edinburgh found that tsetse prefer to feed on the larger and older cattle in a herd and mainly target their legs and belly.

Steve said: "We've found farmers don't need to spray the whole cow with the insecticide and they don't need to spray every cow, cutting pesticide costs to just £1 per cow per year."

To date, 20,000 cattle in Uganda have been treated under Steve's new system. Trials have also been carried out in Ethiopia, Kenya, South Africa, Tanzania and Zimbabwe.

Professor John Humphreys, vice-chancellor for research and enterprise at the University of Greenwich, said: "This nomination is a great honour for our natural resources institute, which has an international reputation for its work in the field of sustainable development."

"I am thrilled work which has been pioneered in Medway has been recognised along-

A FORMER Gillingham resident will appear in court next month charged with animal cruelty.

The RSPCA claim Paul Rapps, who lived in James Street, caused unnecessary suffering to his pet dog Rocky, a black and tan Rottweiler in 2006.

Rapps will appear before Thanet Magistrates' Court on Friday, October 12.

Brothers attacked by gang asking for drugs

A MUM said she felt "sick to her stomach" after her two teenage boys were attacked.

The boys, aged 14 and 16, were set upon by three thugs on Wednesday, September 26, in an alleyway behind Beacon Road, Chatham.

The gang approached the younger sibling at 8.30pm asking him for drugs. When he told them he did not take drugs one of the yobs punched him in the face.

When his older brother saw the commotion and asked what was going on he was head butted in the mouth.

The blow knocked both of his front teeth out. He will now require dental treatment for up to eight months.

The boys' mother, who wished to remain anonymous, said: "It's so upsetting. As a parent you want to protect your children and it makes me feel sick to my stomach that this has happened. I have brought my boys up right and it's not fair that they have been attacked.

"I want people to contact the police with information so they can prevent this from happening to anyone else."

Distress

Crime investigator Roger Golding said: "This appears to be a seemingly unprovoked assault on two teenage brothers which has left one in need of long-term treatment.

"This has caused a great deal of distress for both the boys and their family and we are keen to arrest those responsible for inflicting these painful injuries."

The first suspect is described as white, 18-years-old, 5ft 9ins and of stocky build. He had mousey-brown cropped hair and wore a white long-sleeved jacket, a red-collared polo shirt, blue jeans and white trainers.

The second is white, 16-years-old, 5ft 8ins, with ginger shoulder-length hair and freckles. He wore a plain grey hooded top, baggy grey tracksuit bottoms and white trainers.

Police are also keen to trace another boy described as white, 15 years old, 5ft 7ins, of slim build with short black hair. He wore a hooded top with Slipknot written on it, plain light blue jeans and black Converse trainers.

The science bit

The Earth's climate has been relatively stable since the end of the last Ice Age, about 10,000 years ago, but it is now changing.

The average global temperature is rising. The 20th century is likely to have been the warmest century in the last 1,000 years: there was about 0.6°C of warming, with land warming more than the sea. The 1990's was the warmest decade in the last 100 years.

SITE SET ON GREEN LIVING

A WEBSITE dedicated to tackling climate change in Medway went live yesterday (Tuesday). The interactive Medway: Our Planet website was launched at Byron Primary School, Gillingham, with the help of a giant inflatable.

The air inside the balloon was equivalent to six kilograms of carbon dioxide, the amount of energy which could be saved by turning the washing machine down from 60 degrees to 40 for one month or through fitting two energy efficient lightbulbs.

Portfolio holder for customer first and corporate services, Cllr Janice Bamber, said: "The council is committed to playing its part in tackling climate change.

"Medway: Our Planet will help. We know there's lots of good work being done in Medway to combat changes to our climate and we want to hear more about what is happening."

The website can be viewed at www.medwayourplanet.net

Design is mother of all ships

A SUPER warship which will be the most advanced naval vessel ever is currently on the drawing board, as pictured on today's front page.

BAE Systems, based in Rochester, are behind the plan for the new ship which will launch unmanned jets, submarines, tanks and fast attack boats by remote control.

It is expected the new generation of vessels – part aircraft carrier, part destroyer – could be in service by 2020.

The ship – called the UXV Combatant but known to insiders as The Mothership – is still in its initial planning and design stages. Specifications say it will weigh 8,000 tonnes and its stealth design will see it appear on radar the size of a fishing boat.

Main weapons will be a concealed 155 mm gun with a range of 75 miles.

A small crew will be needed to operate the ship and its 24 unmanned remote control boats and aircraft.

BAE's engineering chief Charles Nisbet said: "We have been working across industry and closely with the MOD on the concept. This is a considered request for designs."

Naval sources say the ship could replace the current Type 22 frigate and just a handful of the new UXVs could actually constitute an invasion force.

Ladies, are you still a Mother Funker at heart?

A UNIQUE nightclub for mums will open its doors for the first time in Rochester this month.

Mother Funkers is aimed at women who still crave a good boogie but, through motherhood or other responsibilities, can't afford to be out all night.

Hannah Wait, who is behind the launch, said: "With nightclubs not opening their doors until after 10pm, there's nowhere for mums to go to have a good dance. Mother Funkers is where women can dance part of the night away and be finished by 11.30pm, so they can still be up with the children the next day."

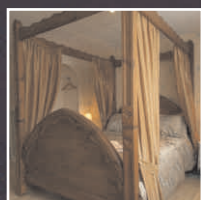

The club night will be held at the Corn Exchange, Rochester, on Friday, October 12.

No snow on the horizon this winter say experts

THE north of the county is heading for a mild winter according to long-range weather forecasters who say snow is not looking likely.

Last year's winter was the second warmest on record, and although the coming months will most likely be colder, temperatures will still not plummet. Experts this week also studied records which pointed out that long periods of snow which result in freeze ups are becoming rarer as the years go by.

The Met Office say predictions for winters taken at this time of year are right "two out of three times". This can be calculated with some degree of accuracy as it is partially caused by weather patterns over Iceland and the Azores.

QUESTION & ANSWER

ALI WHEELER

Q & A

She's the person thousands of us wake up to at Kent's most popular commercial radio station Invicta FM breakfast show co-presenter Ali Wheeler who talks to Chris Britcher about life on the radio

Q It's the question everyone must ask you, but how early do you have to wake up to do your show, and how early do you have to go to bed?

A It is at 4.25am my alarm goes off and by 4.40am I haul myself into the shower. But I think even if I got up at 7am it would still feel horrid. Getting up sucks in general.

Because we have to be on top of what our listeners are watching, I do find myself watching a lot of evening telly. My husband Haydn commutes to London everyday and doesn't get home until 8.30pm so unless I stay up until about 10.30pm I feel like we're just ships that pass in the night. But I do get a few siestas throughout the week... which I love.

Q How did you get the job at Invicta - and what jobs had you done prior to joining?

A I sent a demo in to the boss and they got me down for an audition. James and I seemed to hit it off. The rest is history.

I hadn't really worked in radio before Invicta, apart from a six-month stint on traffic and travel at Essex FM. Before then I was working in music PR as a 'plugger'.

I was a promo girl for a while working with companies like Audi, Daewoo, and Marks & Spencer. I did voiceovers here and there, and a bit of modelling for Boden and Laura Ashley for a while (when I was much slimmer!). I was a waitress in a café in west London and worked for a theatre-in-education company performing anti-drugs, anti-smoking and sexual health awareness shows, so a pretty varied CV.

Q You have a good radio chemistry with James Heming - do you get on as well off-mic as it appears you do on it?

A It's obviously a cliché...but yes we do! I don't think I could work that closely with somebody I didn't truly like. At 5am you're bloomin' sensitive, and if we didn't click with each other, coming to work would be foul. It's not like normal work relationships - you are working ridiculously closely with each other, and being friends makes that easier. However, we do have our moments but you get over it, because we have a lot of respect for each other.

Q You live in Faversham - what attracted you to the town and were you tempted to live elsewhere?

A When we were house hunting the criteria was a short drive to work for me, and good train line into London for Haydn. As soon as we first drove through Faversham we fell in love with it. Finding our place on the creek was a dream come true. But there's no shortage of amazing places to live in Kent and it could just as easily have been alongside the river anywhere.

Q When you get a chance to unwind where in the county do you like to go and what do you like to do?

A We love Tankerton Slopes, Mt Ephraim gardens for a picnic, along the creek for a stroll up to Oare and around there.

Canterbury is a firm favourite for shopping, or Whitstable if I just want a little browse.

Q What do you believe makes for a good DJ? And who on radio inspired you before you got into the business?

A I think it's really important to be yourself. If you're not 'you' on the air it just makes the job difficult, and the listeners see through it. I loved Christian O'Connell's Breakfast show on XFM because it sounded so effortless, the team had great chemistry and it made me smile.

Q Is working in radio as glamorous as the public perception?

A Nothing is! We get to meet some really interesting people, and do some really fun things. However, it's a very competitive industry with pressures to keep getting bigger audience figures, bosses to keep happy, and you have to keep evolving and delivering relevant and compelling radio every day. There's this myth that all breakfast DJs go home at 10am, I wish that was the case.

Q Who is the most famous person you have interviewed and what were they like?

A It was Kevin Spacey and I walked into the studio tripped over a load of wires and practically fell on top of him!

He was lovely about it, and we had a great chat.

Digital Domesday Book

BY NICK AMES

A HUGE collection of images chronicling some of England's great architectural achievements, including Rochester Castle and Cathedral, has been set up by English Heritage.

Some lesser-known features, such as the figurehead outside the church in Chatham Historic Dockyard, are also included in the project, which took seven years to complete and cost £7.4 million.

A total of 315,000 images are available online now at www.imagesofengland.org.uk.

They include almost every building, structure and monument listed as being of importance.

Beautiful stately homes and imposing castles are included alongside the more commonplace – lamp posts, railway stations, telephone kiosks and bus shelters.

"The intention was to capture forever a snapshot of how England looks at the start of the 21st century," said Simon Thurley, chief executive of English Heritage.

"It's a Domesday Book for our time, a digital history of England that captures at one moment what our society values in its history and its architecture.

"This is a unique record. With the gradual march of plastic windows, railings being removed and drives being Tarmacked, future generations will be able to look back and see how England looked."

The images were taken by more than 2,200 volunteers nationwide. They used 13,000 rolls of 35mm film and travelled 1.4 million miles to obtain the images.

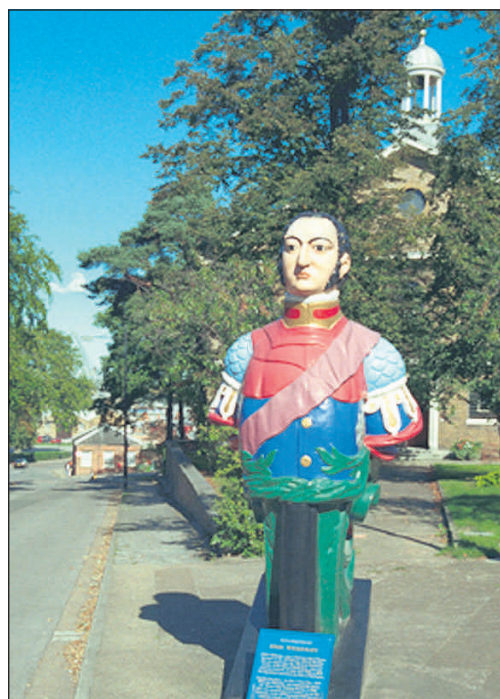

One photographer, Lorna Freeman, took pictures in of England's 42 officially designated counties and has 2,453 different shots used

Most prominent pictures across the site are of churches, which total 7,484. Next are bridges with 6,283 on the site.

Rarest are two penguin pools and one pigeon loft.

The site should appeal to many different people, according to English Heritage.

It is intended for scholars to examine the historical significance of buildings shown, architects and engineers to study techniques and tourists to view place they intend to visit.

Protective brother loses teeth in cowardly assault

A 16-YEAR-OLD lost two front teeth and will need extensive dental treatment after he went to the aid of his younger brother who was being attacked.

Three assailants had approached the younger brother and asked for drugs during the incident in Beacon Road, Chatham.

He told the gang he did not take them and when he intervened to ask what the row was about, he was headbutted.

"It makes me feel sick to my stomach," said the boys' mother, who did not want to be named.

She appealed for anyone with information about the assault, on September 26, to contact police.

Jools tells of drug use in new autobiography

MUSIC legend and TV presenter Jools Holland has revealed how he suffered a cocaine-induced panic attack.

The former Tube presenter and one-time member of Squeeze is releasing his autobiography, Barefaced Lies and Boogie Woogie Boasts, this week.

Pianist Holland, 49, who lives in Cooling, said: "I suddenly felt I was having a heart attack or going mad."

"A doctor was called and he told me it was a panic attack bought on by having taken cocaine two days previously."

Holland will be signing copies of his book at Waterstone's Bluewater branch on Monday.

MP in bid to stop cull of quarantined sheep

CHATHAM and Aylesford MP Jonathan Shaw is battling to save the lives of 100,000 sheep.

Mr Shaw, a minister in the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, is looking into ways of avoiding a mass cull of the animals, which are quarantined inside a bluetongue control zone.

The Romney sheep are moved out of the South East in the autumn but since Sunday moving restrictions have prevented this.

Mr Shaw said: "The government is working to find a solution. We know farmers face huge pressures but we must have strict measures in place to stop the spread of diseases."

Council staff set to strike over pay

MEDWAY council staff moved a step closer to industrial action after their fixed wage structure was thrown into doubt.

The strike threat was revealed by workers' trade union Unison after Medway council's cabinet agreed to investigate areas for savings – including the pay agreements of its 6,500-strong workforce – on Tuesday afternoon.

Brian Kelly, secretary of Unison's Medway branch, said any move to break the terms staff currently enjoy under the National Joint Council Agreement would lead to industrial action.

He said: "The 6,500 Medway council staff, who are employed on National terms and conditions, are understandably fearful of the employer's intentions.

"Our members are of the view that they should not have to pay – with their wage agreement – for the failings of the council or its officers to manage its budget.

"It is our belief that if the council attempted to remove staff from National conditions, the only option available to staff would be to take industrial action.

"Unison is disappointed, given the implications of such changes, that the council choose to hide their proposals from staff and the trade unions.

"It was Unison, alongside the press, who alerted staff to these proposals."

A spokesman for Medway council said:

"The Medium Term Financial Plan emphasised the need for clear and explicit links between resourcing decisions and the council's key priorities.

"It aimed to ensure financial sustainability, generate efficiency savings for reinvestment in priority spending, consider revenue funding streams for capital investment decisions and avoid central government controls.

"We recognise that automatic pay increments are a significant cost pressure and remain an area to look at as part of our budget plans for the coming years.

"Any decision to implement local pay would require consultation with staff and is likely to take some time to come into practice."

Each week we get a mystery writer to air their views on living in Medway...

The joke about English gangs has worn a bit thin

I HAVE been hearing a lot recently about youth gangs in the Medway region, such as the so-called White Road Crew who apparently disrupted a birthday party recently.

These sort of teenagers seem to get an awful lot of press at the moment with names such as Burger Bar Boys, Longsight Crew, Doddington Gang and Gooch Close Gang being banded about with relish by so-called social commentators in the national newspapers.

But it's hardly the Crips and The Bloods, The Latin Kings or even Kidz Gone Bad (KGB) who used to pose and pout in front of a Dunkin Donuts I frequented while living in New York.

Apparently the White Roaders (sounds like some Nazis in 4x4s when you put it like that) turned up one air rifle at the birthday party fiasco.

I don't know if anyone fired a pellet but the word drive-by does not spring to mind.

In fact – let's face it, this is just a group of children who have watched Menace II Society too many times and downloaded a Tupac ringtone for their mobile phone.

Groups of bored kids have formed gangs as far back as anyone remembers.

They enjoy the mystique and feeling of belonging which comes of adopting a name.

What were The Secret Seven or Famous Five if they weren't a gang.

And how about those terrors of the Greyfriars Remove in the Billy Bunter books – Harry Wharton and Co?

So there really is nothing wrong with groups of young people calling themselves a name and hanging out together.

But I suppose the trend for calling themselves after American-style inner city gangs – which frequently have mafia or cartel connections is a new one.

Well if so, it is laughable.

And there is one man to blame.

Step forward comedian Sacha Baron Cohen – alias everyone's favourite boy from the hood Ali G.

The time was when the very mention of the words (wordz?) 'Staines Massive' would have guaranteed roars of laughter from everyone who even pretended some semblance of street-wise nous.

But not now – just as Mr Cohen decided to drop social commentary and humour to celebrate the very thing he was parodying to rake in the cash – such names are part of everyday use.

Where once the name of an English town or street matched with a Jamaican, South Central or Bronx-style appendage would have been treated as a joke it is now apparently the greatest threat our society faces.

Innit?

TALK TIME

KEVIN CHRISTIE

The managing director of Dickens World tells us about what is next for the £62 million visitor attraction in Medway

How happy are you with Dickens World so far and what can we look forward to?

It's been brilliant. It gives me a real buzz to know that we have achieved so much in such a short space of time. We had a difficult time opening, but since those early days we have entertained over 150,000 visitors. Our exit polls show that 60 per cent come from outside of Kent. I hope we have created something of real value to Chatham and Medway. The Dickens World Christmas offer 'A Christmas Carol' begins in October. In the attractions industry you are always working to the next season. While everyone else is having their summer holidays, we are planning for Halloween, Christmas, Santa, Christmas parties, corporate parties, panto and our New Year's Eve party.

What's your background and why did you take up your position?

At quite a young age, 29, I had already worked in various companies for 20th Century Fox and returned to UK as Deputy MD for six years. I then partnered an international film sales company with Windmill Lane Studios and U2 Management. Since then I have had a successful career raising monies for media-related projects.

I first came to Medway in 2000 in search of a site that had a relationship to Charles Dickens. I was introduced to Chatham Maritime by Locate in Kent.

I took the position for a number of reasons. Most people think only of Dickens as relevant to his writing. I think unlike many other authors he embodies a time in our history for which we have great nostalgia.

This coupled with the fascination that many overseas visitors have for this period of our history provided the blueprint for an entertaining and interesting attraction.

YOUR LETTERS

Integration has been a success

Your main story last week concerning the racial tension at the school in Chatham seems to have been picked up by every national newspaper this week.

Well done for being first – but can I offer a note of caution here.

Racial tensions exist in many places across the UK, but it is not fair to say that all of the people who live here have been unwelcoming to newcomers.

Certainly there are areas of Medway where race relations are excellent and we have many different communities across the towns, Muslims, Sikhs, Hindus and other south east Asians as well as those from eastern Europe.

So while there seems to be problems existing in one area of our community, others have managed to integrate different races, faiths and beliefs without difficulty.

Roger Adams
Gillingham

Change of cuisine a better business idea

DOES Chatham hold the record for the number of Indian restaurants in any one town in the UK?

As a person who has recently moved to the town it was the first thing that struck me.

There seems to be streets and streets where every second building is a curry house.

I wonder how they all survive and surely there must be room for outlets specialising in different cuisine.

I recently heard planning permission was being discussed for yet another one.

Surely enough is enough.

Might I suggest any restaurateur who wants to make a profit opens a Thai, Mexican, Tapas, Brazilian or American diner ^ anything for a bit of variety.

Roger Hatch

Castle should be a big-screen star

In the last edition of your newspaper you featured a story on Rochester Castle and the renovation work which has been done at this historic site.

While agreeing that the castle attracts a fair number of visitors, I do feel it is a much underused resource by the city.

Dover Castle was recently the setting for a new film on Henry VIII, Knole Park saw a fantasy adventure being shot there recently with Michelle Pfeiffer and Robert De Niro in starring roles, and Leeds Castle has been in everything from Arthurian epics to the Dr Who TV show.

But what has Rochester Castle ever been featured in?

It has the dramatic keep and impressive inside ruins which would make a perfect setting for the climax of a period picture.

A high-profile film appearance for one of the most important sites in the Medway area would do wonders for tourism in the area as well.

So the next time Russell Crowe wants to don a sword and shield – bring him to Rochester

Mike Terry

Meridian news is a massive turn off

What is the point of Meridian television?

I used to be a keen viewer of local news on the station, but nowadays it seems Kent hardly gets a mention.

Really I am not too bothered about a row over parking in Bournemouth, Brighton's homeless problems or the fact that Southampton FC has a large number of Polish supporters.

Dementia poll is a cause for concern

The new survey results published by YouGov showed a lack of public awareness about Alzheimer's disease and dementia.

Its findings give cause for concern, highlighting that the public has little awareness of dementia, and that most people assume memory loss is a natural part of ageing.

People should not assume that mental decline is inevitable. We age in different ways and exercise, eating well and staying active can all help us retain mental and physical health throughout our life.

At the moment 750,000 people in the UK are affected by Alzheimer's or dementia and this is expected to double by 2030, causing a tragic loss of independence as well as considerable stress and heartache for all involved.

It is therefore crucial that much more funding is made available for research that can increase our understanding of Alzheimer's disease and dementia, both to develop better treatments, and preferably to prevent mental decline, as well as better inform the public about preventative measures and how to be healthier in later life.

Help the Aged research shows that mental decline ranks as the UK's number one health concern associated with ageing, which is why the charity is working to raise funds for its project called the Disconnected Mind, a major scientific study aiming to uncover the causes of mental deterioration in later life and find ways to prevent them.

Donations are urgently required and can be made to the appeal on 020 7239 1982 or disconnected-mind@helptheaged.org.uk.

Lucky Amber sends a lesson to all parents

I was touched to see the lovely story you carried last week of little Amber Howe whose life has been saved by a pacemaker.

The shock for myself, and all parents I should believe, was the way she went from having what could have been simple flu, to a virus that attacked her heart and threatened to end her young life.

It was a warning to everyone to be extra vigilant around their children and never just assume because they are a little lethargic it is a simply a childhood cold.

I used to be a nurse and I am fully aware that some parents become unnecessarily paranoid, but it doesn't matter, if you have any doubt at all, get them to a professional.

Good luck Amber and your family, may you have a long and happy life.

Time to get unsafe drivers off our roads

PLANS by police to take untaxed cars off the road must surely be welcomed.

To see these wrecks that litter our streets is unforgivable and it's about time our police and local authorities really took the problem seriously.

But why stop there.

Surely in an effort to make our road environment better they need to take a tougher stance with all drivers.

First speeding on the motorway. Stop it. Everyone thinks that 80mph is ok. Well it isn't. Slow down, save fuel and it really doesn't save any time.

Then take a look at old drivers, say anyone who has been driving for 20 years or more. Get them retested, then they will have to end their bad habits.

Then smoking behind the wheel, changing CDs, chatting, eating... all need to be looked at.

Lee feels the bite in Iraq

Comic talks about his visit to the warzone, the tragic death of his father and being back on tour

LEE Hurst had a number of unusual experiences during his hazardous trip to Iraq, but one stands out above the rest.

While on a visit to entertain troops in the warzone last year, he was offered the chance to dress up in a protective suit and invite a large attack dog to chase him.

Hurst convulsed with laughter as he recalled being dragged into the dirt and shaken.

He said: "I started running off, but when this huge dog brought me down I just couldn't help laughing. I'm asthmatic and I'd forgotten my inhaler, so I was wheezing and choking on dust, but it was hilarious."

It was all a far cry from Hurst's days as a popular television personality, appearing as a regular panellist on the BBC show They Think It's All Over.

He left the show eight years ago after recording five series, to concentrate on his comedy club, The Backyard in Bethnal Green, east London.

His experiences on the circuit influenced the way in which the club is run, including a decision to ban smoking on health grounds a full five years before the Government did.

LEE HURST

Sunday, October 21

Leas Cliff Hall, Folkestone

Hurst takes a hands-on approach, even to security. At least two unlucky punters have been physically ejected recently for talking during the show, though Hurst claims to have no self-defence training.

He said: "I didn't really think about what I would do if they lashed out. My fighting style these days tends to be curling into a ball and crying."

Hurst certainly revealed his fighting spirit when he hit the headlines last year following an apparent suicide threat.

Distressed by the treatment of his dying father at a hospital on the Isle of Sheppey, Hurst decided to exploit the media for his own ends.

Threatening to take an overdose of anti-inflammatory medication if his demands were not met, Hurst locked himself in his car and called a national newspaper.

He said: "I knew it would up the pressure on the NHS and force them to act. I never intended to hurt myself or anyone else, so I tipped the contents of all but one of the capsules into one of my dog's poo bags. Then I went off and there was a bit of a manhunt."

Police eventually apprehended him on a beach at Minster and he was taken for psychiatric tests before being released.

The experience did not tempt Hurst into political comedy, but he found talking about it on stage a useful way to come to terms with what had happened.

He said: "Putting it bluntly, my dad died on Wednesday and it was in the routine on Saturday night. I've told the story three times and that's it - it's over with."

Hurst has already begun his latest tour and claims not to be troubled by nerves, though he has experienced other problems.

"On the first night of the tour, I was running late and didn't have time to go to the loo before I went on stage," he revealed.

"I thought I wouldn't stay on that long, but I worked it into the act and it went really well. I don't have favourite themes, I just talk about anything that's funny. It's really just me mucking around."

Lee Hurst will be appearing at the Leas Cliff Hall in Folkestone at 8pm on Sunday, October 21. Tickets cost £16. To book, call the box office on 0870 4000 890.

Tate's Iron Curtain call

■ BY EILEEN CONDON

YOU couldn't blame Catherine Tate for getting a little 'bovvered' at the mention of her trademark catchphrase.

The comedienne has probably had 'Am I bovvered?' quoted back at her more times than she cares to remember, but the gracious star insists she's grateful for the recognition.

"It's not like I'm bombarded. It's usually kids who say it to me," she said. "But that's great. If people don't know who you are, it means the show hasn't worked very well."

After making her name on the stand-up circuit she successfully moved into TV, appearing in programmes like Big Train and Wild West, before landing her own Bafta-nominated show.

Earlier this year she made a guest appearance on Doctor Who and was such a hit she's set to return as his regular sidekick.

But for now the multi-talented actress is revealing a very different side.

In her latest movie, Mrs Ratcliffe's Revolution – released last Friday – she takes centre stage and this time she's not playing it for laughs. Far from being daunted, the 39-year-old star says she was more than up for the challenge.

"This script really did grab me," she said. "I thought it was brilliant as soon as I read it."

Set in the early 60s when the Iron Curtain descended, the film tells the true story of Dorothy Ratcliffe (played by Tate) who, along with her husband Frank (Iain Glen) and their two daughters, defect from their home in Bingley, Yorkshire to East Germany to live the communist dream.

However, their hope of a simple life with socialist principles quickly turns into a nightmare as an increasingly unhappy Dorothy desperately tries to keep her family together.

"She becomes the pivot for the family," Catherine said of her character.

"She's resolutely cheerful and the kind of woman who gets sidelined a bit, as I imagine quite a lot of women did in the 60s, and then she ends up this mini revolutionary."

Though her character's life couldn't be more different from her own, Catherine says she can relate to Mrs Ratcliffe, as she has also experienced life in the Eastern Bloc.

In 1991 she lived as an exchange student in Russia during the military coup.

"It was a very strange sensation. I was living with a family and the father and son would go out and protest at the barricades and for 48 hours we didn't hear from them. It was very frightening to see a family traumatised and torn about where their menfolk were," she said.

NOT BOVVERED: Catherine Tate was more than happy to take centre stage in the new film Mrs Ratcliffe's Revolution

Despite the austere nature of the movie Catherine says filming in Hungary proved to be a highlight.

"I was so surprised by how cosmopolitan and westernised it is. In my ignorance and naivety I thought, 'Oh I better take a lot of food with me,' and of course we didn't need to."

"It's such a beautiful country and the people were so lovely and so interested in what we were doing."

The actress, who was born and raised in London by her single parent mum, still lives in the capital, but Hollywood is beating a path to her door. She recently filmed Love And Other Disasters with American starlet Brittany Murphy and also appeared alongside Friends actor David Schwimmer in the hit stage play Some Girls.

However, the busy star says she has no plans to uproot to LA.

"It's a place I'd love to go and see if I was asked to do something over there, but I'm definitely not about to go knocking on doors. I have my family here," she added.

All of Turkey's delights on show

BY JO WALKER

ISTANBUL is a city that knows how to feed the appetite, and knows how to fuel it as well.

With main streets that seem to suffer from perpetual traffic jams, taxis and buses are an exercise in tedious frustration, so walking is the recommended mode of transport. And with so much to take in – from ancient temples to street markets – it pays to travel at a slower pace.

First stop on most tourist trails is the achingly gorgeous Hagia Sophia, and rightly so. Even the most jaded of travellers find its soaring domes, enormous Islamic medallions and light-pierced gloom a sight to behold.

Sightseers here are slack-jawed in awe and wonder. If that's the reaction of the 21st century tourist, I wondered, imagine what this place must have been to the millions who saw it before skyscrapers and 747s? Like the various here-afters it peddled, the place is still otherworldly.

A short walk away lies the famous Blue Mosque. A mere 400 years old, it's still a brash newcomer in the Turkish scheme of things, but what it lacks in antiquity it makes up for in pure elegance and a sense of vitality only a fully functioning place of worship can inspire.

If the Hagia Sophia shows the mish mash of Istanbul's past, this place is a single-minded love note to Islamic art, culture and faith.

While Istanbul is a city that welcomes visitors, it is not yet one of those over-touristed places that become attractively packaged cari-

CULTURAL ICON: Istanbul Blue Mosque is only 400 years old – a newcomer in the Turkish scheme of things captures of themselves, a mere reflection of what foreigners think they should be.

While most of the must-dos are located on the Asian side of the Bosphorus around the Sultanahmet district, the European side has its charms too – of a more laidback, lived-in kind than its Oriental counterpart.

Our boutique hotel, the Pera Rose, has a touch of Eastern luxury with its deep leather sofas, darkwood finishes, and complimentary spa and sauna facilities – a nice distraction after long days pounding the ancient capital's pavements.

But the Pera Rose Hotel's main drawcard is its location: barely two minutes from Istiklal Avenue in the Beyoglu district, the city's all-purpose late night shopping, drinking and noshing zone.

Near to midnight it's still heaving as thousands of Turks cruise the street – some there for a leisurely window-shop, others nibbling borek, or just listening to folksy buskers strumming acoustic guitars.

Scores of ferries leave every few minutes from the Eminonu docks, and at 50p per journey, you get up close and personal with the sparkling waters of the Bosphorus.

In addition to the ubiquitous rounds of tea served in tiny glass cups, each boat features massive posters of the imposing Ataturk, founder of modern Turkey, decorated with exhortations to his fellow countrymen.

It's almost impossible to overstate the reverence in which he's held by the population here.

One stall selling wall plaques painted with iconic figures peddles pictures of the nationalist leader rubbing up against depictions of Che Guevara, Jim Morrison and Kurt Cobain.

And it's here he seems to have settled into the national consciousness – part politician, part rock star, part god.

It's a good bet he'll not be forgotten any time soon.

YOUR WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY RUSSELL GRANT

AQUARIUS (Jan 21 - Feb 19)

BEING resourceful with your employer's cash brings surprise results. You could even parlay your current position into a more prestigious one. Don't be afraid to let down your guard with a lover; it's the only way to achieve the intimacy you need. Express concern for their dreams especially if they've postponed plans for the sake of yours.

TAURUS (Apr 21 - May 21)

THIS is a good time to discuss the future with a partner. Getting engaged or planning a wedding is highly favoured. If you're already in a relationship, the two of you may decide to add to the family. Alternatively, you may decide to collaborate on a creative project. A generous bank loan or financial gift could help you buy a dream house.

LEO (July 24 - Aug 23)

IF you're looking for new ways to save money, organise your household. Streamlining your space will give you more time to prepare. Donate any items you haven't used for over a year to charity. The more spacious your surroundings, the easier it will be for money to flow into your life. Your appeal will be an irresistible lure to a powerful admirer.

SCORPIO (Oct 24 - Nov 22)

MAKING new social contacts is the best way to meet your needs. Seek out seasoned professionals who are effective communicators. Career matters are highly favoured this week. Seize an opportunity to make a public presentation. Your wit, charm, and good looks will make a fantastic impression on your audience.

PISCES (Feb 20 - Mar 20)

TALKING with an expert can improve your relationship skills. Learning how to communicate your needs is half the battle in enjoying a fruitful romance. A plum work assignment could fall into your lap. Don't be surprised if an organisation offers you a prominent position after seeing your work. Getting paid to do what you love is a real possibility.

GEMINI (May 22 - Jun 22)

AN older relative could offer to teach you a valuable skill. Take them up on it immediately, as it will result in better job opportunities. Never underestimate the importance of simple work like sewing, gardening, or carpentry. If you already have a lover, go on a romantic trip together. A change of scenery will reignite your passion for one another.

VIRGO (Aug 24 - Sep 23)

TALKING about your problems can help you cope. Don't discount the idea of therapy. You don't need to have serious problems to benefit from such treatment. Spending time on a secret creative project can also prove fulfilling. Resist the temptation to show your efforts to others until next month. In the meantime focus on having fun.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23 - Dec 21)

KEEP talks with an authority figure a secret this week and your discretion will be well rewarded. You may be trusted with a confidential report so hide things away from prying eyes. If you can pull off this job, you'll be given bigger and better assignments. A love connection could occur between you and a foreigner.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr 20)

YOU'RE giving more thought to your financial security. Making out a will, taking out an insurance policy, or starting a college fund for a child are among the possibilities. Even setting aside funds for a rainy day can make your job seem less odious. That's because having a safety cushion helps you take irritation with a grain of salt.

CANCER (Jun 23 - Jul 23)

THIS week gives you a golden opportunity to negotiate new terms for a job. Being assigned to a different department or getting a promotion offer are among the possibilities. Riches could flow into your life in the form of a luxurious gift. Hiring a personal trainer or joining a gym will boost your self confidence and make you more attractive.

LIBRA (Sep 24 - Oct 23)

WORKING behind the scenes can help you fulfil financial obligations. While it's frustrating to not get any public acclaim for this work, it's also liberating to escape the spotlight. A friendship could turn to romance with very little encouragement. You have an uncanny sense of what a love interest needs to hear to let down their guard.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan 20)

WORKING with a large group can expand your horizons. It's important to cooperate with people whose methods may not match yours. This will help you become more open minded and adaptable. Your sex life is starting to sizzle. There's never been a better week to schedule a rendezvous. Don't be afraid to voice your desires.

Clunes holding surgery over Doc's casebook

■ BY ANDY WELCH

"I'D ONLY seen a very rough version of the first episode, so it was nice to see the final edit," said Martin Clunes after watching the first instalment of a new run of Doc Martin.

Many actors don't get to see rough cuts of their work before the editor and director have had their way with a show, so why is Clunes different?

"Well, I'm married to the producer, you see. I get to see these things as an insider," he said.

The character of Dr Martin, albeit it in a slightly different incarnation, first appeared in 2000 film Saving Grace. Clunes played the medic again in two TV film prequels a few years later, but after the original production company went bust, the actor and his producer wife pitched a revamped Doc Martin to ITV and the rest, as they say, is history.

The show as we now know it was first screened in 2004, and told of a socially inept surgeon from London who, after developing a blood phobia, retrained as a GP and moved to a sleepy fishing village in Cornwall.

When the abrasive medic arrived in Portwenn, he immediately began upsetting the villagers and struggled to adjust to the quiet life away from the capital.

"He's wrong in every way," said Clunes of his alter ego. Wrong and utterly prejudiced, in fact.

"That's why I love it, though," he added. "The central role in most TV shows is pretty smashing and normally sorts everything out for everyone, but that's what I love about Doc Martin, he causes the problems – except when it counts, when lives are at stake and he's so

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE: Clunes's part as Doc Martin has made the character one of the country's best-loved roles drastically right. He's just so rude though."

Cornwall's scenic Port Isaac is transformed into the fictional Portwenn and has become a genuine tourist attraction as a result of the programme.

"Lots of people go there," explained Clunes. "There are signs with directions on to landmarks from the show, but that's quite unfortunate for the people who own the house which doubles as my surgery."

"Sadly, people go right up to the house and tap on the window shouting 'Is he in?' They should say, 'Of course he's not in, it's fictional!'. Now there's another sign saying, 'Don't tap on the window' or 'Get a life' or something."

"One of the appeals of the show is that it's not filmed in London. When we did William and Mary, we were 11 hours in front of the camera every day, and then an hour or more travelling either side. It's horrible, and of course, it's not real travelling, it's just sitting in a stationary car in traffic for the most part."

"When I'm staying in Port Isaac for Doc Martin, I can finish work and be at my hotel in 10 minutes."

After landing numerous roles in esteemed shows such as Inspector Morse and Jeeves and Wooster, Martin shot to fame after as the lead in Men Behaving Badly in 1992.

More recent work, including an adaptation of Goodbye, Mr Chips and the highly acclaimed William and Mary, has made Clunes one of Britain's best-loved and most recognisable actors, and a person synonymous with family entertainment.

"I'm not interested in the gritty murder dramas really," he confesses. "I've done the adult comedy with Men Behaving Badly and all that too, so I like the family stuff now."

PROPERTY NEWS

Sales of new homes suffer summer dip

LATEST figures indicate a sign of cooling off in the housing market when it comes to new homes.

The average price for August – the latest available – was £259,393. This represents a dip of 1.1 per cent over the previous month.

Despite this lower figure, the cost is still 0.3 per cent compared with the same period last year.

Market expert David Bexon said: “August has clearly shown a drop in prices as earlier interest rate rises begin to bite.

“New homebuyers are rightly being more cautious before taking on a bigger financial commitment.

“However, there is still an acute shortage of homes in the UK, so demand will remain strong, especially for family homes.

“The autumn will see a period of stability as homebuyers take stock of the market and wait for the next round of competitive deals from lenders and more development incentives.”

He added that new homebuyers were now feeling the effects of five interest rate rises which had occurred since August 2006, with those having to remortgage being faced with larger and more expensive loans to pay off.

Closed care proves a popular option for OAPs

A SHIFT in the market for homes for the elderly is influencing the housing market.

According to research, closed care communities, which provide self-contained units within the grounds of established care homes, are becoming increasingly popular.

Residents benefit from the use of the care homes’ visiting and established services while retaining a level of independence. And experts say they are fast catching the traditional trend for sheltered accommodation.

Market analyst Sarah Woods said: “Residents in closed care accommodation benefit from avoiding potential upheaval and expense of moving again should their health deteriorate.”

The freehold of each such property is owned by the care home.

A monthly service charge also covers basic provisions such as upkeep of grounds and 24-hour emergency cover.

Residents are responsible for such things as TV licences, telephone bills and the usual utility bills as well as internal decoration.

RISE AND FALL: The controversial Home Improvement Packs could be of real benefit to buyers in the housing market, according to solicitor Ron Prior

Don't believe the HIP hype, says solicitor

RECENT Government announcements that Home Information Packs (or HIPs) may soon become compulsory for all housing stock will prove to be the first real test of the bold shake-up in the housing markets.

But far from a cause for concern, it should encourage Kent's buyers.

HIPs remain an issue blighted by oppositional politics and vitriolic national journalism. The people of Kent, given time, will surely see beyond the alarmist headlines and understand what HIPs can really do.

Figures released by organisations such as the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors and the National Association of Estate Agents do indicate a drop in the number of houses coming to market, as part of a general dip across the whole property sector.

■ BY RON PRIOR

Those same figures did not extend to London and the South East, and so to use them as causal evidence of the impact of HIPs is rather short-sighted, given recent turmoil in international money markets.

The scheme was introduced when it was to appease critics but unfortunately allowed them to blame HIPs for depressing the market. Some sellers are indeed wary of anything new, but to hide from it behind an antiquated system is not the answer. Sellers just need the confidence to back packs; the buyers are waiting.

Soon all buyers will expect a property to have a HIP with all accompanying safeguards.

What that means is that when it comes to making that all-important decision of buying a house, it can now be done in a better-informed and very transparent way.

But amid the negative headlines and concerns, it seems time will be the great healer.

Only when HIPs finally become part of the national consciousness will we get the true picture.

The HIP could of course do even more by including a Home Condition Report (rather than the Government just partially extending the scheme), and committing to the full pack, which will truly revolutionise the housing market and fully inform prospective buyers.

MOTORS NEWS

Medway dealership wins top Ford award

A KENT dealer has won a top national award from the Ford Motor Company.

Dagenham Motors of Pier Road, Gillingham, and Cuxton Road, Strood, received Ford's 'Chairman's Award' for customer satisfaction.

Dagenham's general manager Chris Minter – pictured left, receiving the award from Ford regional sales director Mark Deans – said the company had earned the honour several times before, but added: "We're thrilled to have won this award. It is a direct result of the professionalism of everyone pulling together to provide the best service possible."

Dealership members were rewarded with an all expenses paid four-day trip to Monaco.

Style house goes Italian for deliveries

ITALIAN designer furniture chain Mattucci has acquired two Iveco Daily light commercial vehicles, as part of a move to bring its transport operation in-house.

The Daily 35C12 chassis cab models, styled by Italian design house Giugiaro, have high capacity Luton bodies and bear a striking burgundy livery created in-house by Mattucci.

They are based at the company's head office in Northfleet, where Mattucci marketing chief Halil Huseyin said: "We selected the Iveco Daily based on its proven reputation in the industry for durability and reliability."

Gorgeous duo top poll

FILM beauty Scarlett Johansson and the equally stunning Alfa 8C Competizione supercar topped a poll by motor show MPH '07 and the 4Car website, to find the dream car and passenger combination Johansson received 23 per cent of the vote, while the Alfa's victory was even more emphatic at 30 per cent.

MPH '07 is at Earls Court, London, from November 1-4, and hosted by Top Gear TV presenters Jeremy Clarkson, Richard Hammond and James May.

HANDSOME BEAST: Image is everything in the revamped E-Class, however, quality, space and effortless speed also come in handy on the open road

Mercedes star model regains all of its shine

MERCEDES showrooms are mind-boggling places nowadays.

There are models to suit everyone: mini MPVs, saloons, estates, luxury coupes, roadsters and convertibles

But this feast of models is a far cry from how the German 'wunderfirm' built a post-war reputation on pretty much one model, now called the E-Class – the company's management level saloon and estate range.

The 'E's credentials have been simple: rugged build, space, thoughtful and practical design, easy-driving and the cachet of that three-pointed star.

The latest incarnation is particularly handsome, though it needed a facelift in 2006 to silence whispers about electrical gremlins marring the once rock solid E-Class second-hand values.

The revamp introduced some new engines too and the Mercedes lynchpin now seems to be back on form, though the market sector is tougher; Audi's latest A6 is far better than before, while BMW's 5-series might not be a looker, but still claims the 'driver's choice' title.

ROAD TEST MERCEDES E-CLASS

BY STEVE LOADER

STAR QUALITY

Driving appeal	★★★★★
Image	★★★★★
Space	★★★★★
Value	★★★★★
Running costs	★★★★★
Reliability	★★★★★
Green rating	★★★★★

Then again, neither matches the sense of well-being in the E-Class. If you have slogged up the corporate rockface, but can now waft into the company car park in this every morning, then you may feel it was all worth it.

That star on the bonnet adds to the warm glow as you cruise effortlessly along the motorway in an airy and classy cabin, with decent room for four to travel in great comfort plus ample boot space for luggage.

Unlike German rivals mentioned earlier, the big Merc also concentrates on delivering a fine ride, though the rear-wheel drive chassis is still balanced for quicker driving on more challenging roads.

Our test car was a top of the range diesel, the E320CDI Sport fitted with a creamy seven-speed auto 'box as standard and paddle shifts on the wheel for rapid manual gear selection – the car can be surprisingly agile.

Not that it then burns the juice; Mercedes reckons it has wrung up to 26 per cent more power from the whole E-Class engine line-up without increasing fuel consumption – our 320CDI version can average nearly 40mpg.

USED CAR ROUND-UP: OUR PICK FROM A KEY SECTOR

BEST-SELLING JAPANESE SUPERMINIS

carsforkent.co.uk

SUPERMINIS were not something that Japanese carmakers used to 'do' with much style or verve. They were reliable, of course, but easily outclassed for image and style by European marques. But that changed with the original Toyota Yaris, ironically made in France for European markets. The Yaris now faces its stiffest competition from fellow Japanese manufacturers in the form of the quirky looking yet robust Nissan Micra and Mitsubishi Colt. All three make a statement but are also practical and reliable.

TOYOTA YARIS

TOYOTA'S original mould-breaking supermini (pictured) was replaced last year, but the second generation car has built upon its reputation for space within eye-catching yet compact dimensions; a Yaris of any age makes a decent used buy. The original also spawned the hugely versatile Verso estate-cum-MPV. The Yaris driving experience is classy too, but the years are becoming less kind to the interior design and visual quality of the original car.

NISSAN MICRA

BORING Nissan? Well, the Micra has blown that myth apart. This is the supermini that says you don't have to conform to style in order to be space-efficient and you don't have to carry a French badge to be chic – although Renault now owns Nissan. The Micra turns heads and looks 'right' in three or five-door form. It's affordable and reliable, available with excellent diesels and marketed with some stylish trim in the dearer versions.

MITSUBISHI COLT

THIS stylish little car has been a lifeline for Mitsubishi dealerships, starved so long of decent mainstream car models. It is offered in two forms: an MPV-style five-door with masses of space and a higher driving position, or a lower-slung and pugnacious sporting three-door. The CZT three-door hot hatch version is possibly best in class for the money, but the whole range delivers a good drive. Interiors are refreshing and almost Scandinavian in design.

Europe's busiest and most successful ferry port, we handle 15 million passengers, 3 million tourist vehicles and 2 million freight vehicles a year. With these figures set to increase, we are investing around £300m in a new ferry terminal and associated infrastructure including a marina, property development and traffic regulation. ## BUSINESS BRIEFS

Women told how to start own businesses

BUSINESS LINK is holding a free one-day event aimed at women thinking of going into business for themselves.

What's Stopping You? is designed to provide helpful advice and allow those considering making the move to talk to those with relevant experience.

Business Link's Janice Sandwell said: "You don't need any business experience at all to come along to this event. Whether you want to turn a hobby into a business and fit it around other commitments or to become a high flyer, you will find the 'What's Stopping You?' event informative and inspiring."

It takes place on November 5 at the Holiday Inn, Rochester. Details at www.whatsstoppingyouevents.co.uk or call 01732 878007.

EU gives shoppers more info on imports

KENT MEP Sharon Bowles, has given her support to the Europe-wide 'Made In' campaign, which works for greater transparency and consumer protection by calling for goods imported into the EU to display the country in which they were made.

The Liberal Democrat said: "This campaign is about enabling consumers to make an informed choice about the goods they buy. It's also about encouraging manufacturers and retailers to be more responsible and transparent about where they source their products from."

Lord Coe tells firms how to go for gold

THE man who spearheaded the campaign to host the 2012 Olympic Games in London, will be Maidstone on Friday.

The former Olympic gold medal-winning runner is hosting a breakfast networking session at the Ramada Hotel just off the M20.

Lord Coe will discuss the benefits staging the Games can bring to local businesses, at the Heart of Kent Suite.

The Breakfast with Sebastian Coe event is billed as a key networking opportunity and is organised by the Kent Invicta Chamber of Commerce.

It runs from 8am-9am with full English breakfast included in the £19.95 cost. Details at www.kentinictachamber.co.uk.

 Lewis Hamilton factor has boosted business at Buckmore Park

BRIDGING THE GENERATION GAP: Both younger and older members of staff are impressed with the qualities their colleagues bring to the workplace

Research debunks age-old work myths

■ BY LAUREN MUMFORD

FORTY per cent of older workers believe their younger colleagues teach them skills they previously did not have, according to a study of older and younger workers commissioned by Jobcentre Plus, while one third of younger workers believe older workers are more likely to work anti-social hours than colleagues their own age.

The findings, which come as the UK celebrates the first anniversary of the Employment Equality (Age) Regulations 2006, lift the lid on the benefits for both employers and individuals of employing a diverse workforce.

Across the board in the South East, the results show that working in a mixed-aged workforce is important for both older (61 per cent) and younger (63 per cent) UK workers with all recognising the benefits of working with people of mixed ages.

Lesley Strathie, chief executive of Jobcentre Plus, said: "The research shows that having the right balance of age and skills can bring numerous benefits to establishing a complete workforce for both employers and employees.

"Both older and younger workers appreciate and learn from the qualities each brings to the workplace. It's not always easy to get the mix right."

Perhaps unsurprisingly, the research shows the first and foremost quality younger workers in the South East think their older colleagues bring is experience (92 per cent) whilst reliability (65 per cent) and understanding (76 per cent) also featured highly.

Comparatively, nearly two thirds of older workers are impressed by their younger co-workers ability to learn quickly, be flexible (66 per cent) and give them energy (57 per cent).

Public sector and financial services workers show a higher level of confidence in their younger colleagues, although overall reliability appears to be an area younger workers need to improve – only a quarter of older workers believed their younger co-workers to be reliable.

One factor which was consistent across both age groups was the main reason they come to work – money, although this was more prevalent amongst younger rather than older people (78 per cent compared to 47 per cent).

And contrary to popular belief, only three per cent of younger workers stated that they come to work to meet new people, while 25 per cent of older workers confirmed that they work for personal satisfaction.

Full match reaction from Gillingham's home game against Leyton Orient

Joint victories for Hol's teams

HOLCOMBE ladies stayed top of the East Premier League with their second consecutive 6-0 victory.

Candice Forward scored a hat-trick as the home side ran riot against Wisbech Town. They now have a chance to continue their excellent form this weekend with a double header against the league's bottom side Letchworth on Saturday and Horsham in the cup on Sunday.

The men's firsts needed a golden goal to progress in a dramatic English Hockey Cup tie against Sevenoaks.

Holcombe went into a 3-1 lead, but their opponents hit back to lead 4-3 as the minutes ran out. A last-gasp equaliser sent the game into extra time and with both sides tiring, Holcombe grabbed the winner to extend their unbeaten start to the season to four games.

The team have a league double-header this weekend with games against Teddington and Firebrands.

Leeds come unstuck as Gills show new resolve

FOOTBALL

at Nottingham Forest.

Experienced players such as Nicky Southall and Craig Armstrong were left out in favour of youngsters Sean Clohessy and Marvin Hamilton.

The shake-up worked as Gills made a bright start. Andrew Crofts, Adam Nowland and David Graham all had chances to score, but against the run of play the visitors took the lead when Sebastian Carole headed home on 28 minutes.

Leeds looked on course to set a club record eighth consecutive win at the start of the season, but a lack of discipline let the Gills back into the game, as strikers Tresor Kandol and Jermaine Beckford were foolishly sent off either side of half-time after collecting two bookings each.

It set up a barnstorming last finale as the 8,719 fans inside Priestfield roared on their team.

The Gills dominated, but failed to work Casper Ankergrén in the Leeds goal until David Graham's low shot in the 90th minute. The Danish keeper turned the ball behind for a corner, from which Cox headed the equaliser to the delight of the home fans.

There was more drama after the game when Wise, who was sent to the stands at half-time, accused the referee of swearing at him.

Onoura publicly criticised the players for underperforming before the game, but was happy with the response when facing nine men.

He said: "I was pleased with the way we went about it, we didn't lump it, we kept trying to probe and make our passes."

"If we show the togetherness we showed today then I don't think it matters who we are playing, we are more than a match for anyone."

Gills had a chance to build on the momentum when they played league leaders Leyton Orient last night at Priestfield.

TOUGH TIE: Invicta Dynamos (in white) battled past Basingstoke in ENIHL Cup

Mos tame Buffalo for cup win

ALEX Shaw and Anthony Leone scored twice as Invicta Dynamos strengthened their position in the ENIHL Cup with a 6-2 away victory over Basingstoke.

Kevin Parrish's side played well but were forced to dig deep in a hardfought game at the Basingstoke Ice Rink.

The Mos were fresh after the abandonment of the previous game against Slough Jets due to a fault on the ice machine. Despite the break, they travelled to Hampshire without the injured trio of Peter Carey, Stuart Low and Matthew Drake.

In a tight opening period chances were at a premium but Canadian defenceman Shaw blasted the Mos in front. Leone doubled the lead soon afterwards with his 23rd goal in 39 games for Invicta.

In the Mos' previous ENIHL Cup game they thrashed Romford Spitfires 10-2, but Buffalo put up stronger resistance and pulled a goal back before the end of the first period.

In the second period Invicta continued to move the puck around better than the home side. Forward Ken Forshee restored the visitors' two-goal lead and Shaw made it 4-1 with his second of the match.

The hosts pulled one back before the interval, but never looked like mounting a serious challenge. In the final period, Leone bagged his second goal before Peter Korff completed the scoring.

In a taut finish, captain Grant Baxter was thrown out of the game for his part in a brawl, but it did nothing to change the result.

This weekend the season steps up a gear, with an away trip to Slough Jets in the EPIHL Cup on Saturday.

Then, just 24 hours later, they start their league campaign with a home game against Lee Valley Lions.

Face-off at the Gillingham Ice Bowl is at 5.15pm on Sunday.

Town succumb to third loss in a row

Croydon Athletic 6 Chatham Town 2

CHATHAM Town conceded four second half goals at Croydon on Saturday to lose their third league game in a week and slump to 18th in Ryman Division One South.

The home side, who came into the game on their own three-match losing streak, took the lead in the 15th minute when the unmarked Reggie Savage headed home from 10 yards.

The Chats fought back and Dominic Elmes levelled the score nine minutes later with a well-taken goal. The former Dartford striker turned his marker on the edge of the box and beat the keeper with a low shot via the inside of the post.

Croydon restored their lead shortly before half-time when Savage scored a brilliant volley for his second of the match.

The score remained 2-1 until midway through the second period, when the Chats fell further behind.

The visitors failed to clear a corner properly and when the ball was lobbed back in, Richard Blackwell had time and space to header over John Whitehouse. The hosts made it 4-1 shortly afterwards when Whitehouse blocked a Danny Waldren shot, only for substitute Martin Debrah to convert the rebound.

Elmes pulled a goal back with another decent finish after 79 minutes to give Town brief hope, but it was Croydon who finished the stronger side.

The excellent Savage completed his hat-trick from the penalty spot and Waldren slammed home a fine right foot shot in the last minute.

Chatham take a break from the league this weekend when they host in-form Kingstonian in the FA Trophy on Saturday, kick-off 3pm.

Depleted Medway come unstuck

UNDERSTRENGTH: Medway forced to field several inexperienced players

A DEPLETED Medway battled hard, but paid dearly for wasting their chances as clinical Cranbrook took the points in the opening league game of the season.

The visitors were without six first choice players for the match, forcing coach Taff Gwilliam to field some inexperienced players.

Despite the result, he was pleased with the way the side played under the circumstances.

He said: "It is a good test of our squad, and to be fair I was pleased with the performance."

"The game could have gone either way. We had our opportunities but didn't take them, whereas they had one in each half and took them."

"At the end of the day they were a little bit stronger than us up front and showed more composure when they had their chances which was the difference."

Medway trailed 5-0 in the first half, but were unlucky not to go in ahead at the break.

They were camped in Cranbrook's 22 for long spells, but the hosts' organised defence kept them out.

The second period followed a similar pattern as Medway fought bravely, but the home side took their only clear-cut opportunity to make the game safe.

Backs Liam Weobley and Tyler Gee put in decent performances, but the game was lost in the scrummage where Cranbrook had greater power.

Gwilliam felt the performance was an improvement on the previous game, which his side won 15-0.

He said: "I have got no complaints over the result. There is definitely plenty to build on, particularly the younger players who have got another 80 minutes experience, which is always important."

The side have this weekend off and Gwilliam is hopeful that at least one of his injured six will be back for the cup game against Dartfordians on October 13.

Anchs record deserved 2-1 win over Maidstone

GILLINGHAM Anchorians Ladies first team recorded a well-deserved 2-1 victory over Maidstone 2nd XI in East Division Two.

Anchs dominated the first half, but despite forcing several short corners the game remained goalless at half-time.

Jackie Gray opened the scoring after the break and Dawn Bowie doubled the lead by finishing off a flowing move with a flick past the advancing keeper.

Maidstone gained a consolation goal, but solid defending ensured the Anchs held on.

Struggling Ladies looking to gain a first home win

GILLINGHAM Ladies will look to get their first home win of the season when take on Cambridge City in their latest league game this Sunday.

Gills have struggled so far, winning one of their first six games, but in Jaclyn Fiddymment they have one of the South East Womens' Combination League's top scorers.

Cambridge City also come into the game low on confidence and also sit in the bottom half. The game at Woodstock Park in Sittingbourne kicks off at 2pm.

Gillingham rallying point for badminton week

NATIONAL Badminton Week comes to Medway later this month to give everyone the opportunity to sample the sport.

Coaches will hold training sessions and activities including a 'one-minute rally point challenge', where players will try and keep the shuttlecock in the air for 60 seconds.

Golfer Nick Faldo and Radio 1 DJ Chris Moyles are among the 2.5 million people who regularly play badminton in the UK.

Gillingham's Castlemaine Hall is hosting the event on October 20, from 10am-4pm.
